Republic of the Philippines
Province of Romblon
Office of the Governor

Message

The implementation of the first round of the Community-Based Monitoring System (CBMS) in the province has finally been completed. My deep gratitude to the PEP-CBMS Network for their tireless effort in going to the province for the different trainings of the CBMS Modules and in providing technical support to the CBMS Provincial Team since the onset of the project up to this time and in the future. Likewise, I extend my heartfelt thanks to the mayors of the 17 component municipalities for their unreserved cooperation, manpower and logistics support for this laudable endeavor. The province is likewise indebted to the Municipal CBMS Team who had shown great leadership in the CBMS implementation in their respective municipalities.

Implementing the CBMS is among the most challenging programs the provincial government has undertaken. To implement a province-wide program considering our geographical situation has posed such a challenge that we are proud to have overcome. The need to establish baseline data in the provincial, municipal and barangay levels has been a driving force for all of us to surmount the problems that we had encountered.

With the completed result of the first round of CBMS, we are now well informed on the realities of where we are right now, particularly in terms of the 14 core poverty indicators. These baseline data will guide us in providing specific services where they are most needed. We have great hope that in due time, we will achieve our quest for a unified, self-reliant and ecologically balanced province.

Republic of the Philippines
Province of Siquijor
Office of the Governor

Message

When the Philippines signed the Millennium Declaration in 2000 along with the 191 member states of the United Nations, it in effect actually committed the entire 80 provinces of the country in meeting our global commitments by 2015 and beyond. Thus being the case, the national government had since been advocating to our local officials the laying down of the groundworks and policies that would ensure the attainment of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs).

The Government initiatives which began in 2000 have not, however, been vigorously pursued and mainstreamed in the local government units (LGUs). It has only been lately, in the year 2005 that we began to hear about the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) through the Administration slogan: "BEAT THE ODDS". Even then, there were no clear-cut strategies laid out. National goals can be achieved only if all the stakeholders in development -- local, national and global -- zealously work together to transform these goals into opportunities for better delivery of services to the constituents.

I believe there is no better way to filter down the intent of the national government than to localize these initiatives down to the lowest of LGU level. This would mean that the levels of social awareness and participation at the local levels have to be ignited in ways that would push them to translate national policies into concrete actions that directly respond to the relevant needs of the people.

Initially, the great challenge in my province is to achieve the first seven MDGs, namely: poverty reduction, primary education for all school aged children, gender equality, reduced child mortality, reduced maternal mortality, prevention of HIV/AIDS, malaria and other diseases, and sustainable development. On a bigger scale, there is also the need to intensify global partnership for development.

How to measure the extent of accomplishment of the MDGs is entirely another concern. Tracking down local progress towards the attainment of these goals requires the formulation of standard guides and methodologies.

We are blessed because the province of Siquijor became a pilot of the project survey on Community-Based Monitoring System (CBMS) which provided benchmarks and are useful in tracking local progress of the MDG initiatives. The CBMS data are satisfactory sources of information and knowledge on how much progress has been made because the indicators identified to track MDG accomplishments are also almost the same core-value indicators of the CBMS data-set.

The CBMS data find their true worth because we utilize them in our planning sessions especially in identifying programs and activities that are going to be implemented in a specific area. Through the CBMS data, we have a clear picture of what our barangays need.

We assure you that the CBMS data paint a true picture of Siquijor Province. And so will our Provincial MDG Report which is currently in the making.

Thank you and MABUHAY!
